

FEDERAL RESERVE BANK
OF ST. LOUIS

July 13, 1940.

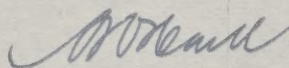

Mr. Eric Newman,
Boatmen's Bank Building,
St. Louis, Missouri.

Dear Mr. Newman:

We have compiled and submit for your purposes list of notes
which you left with us on loan, which is as follows:

Five Cents	1866	North Carolina
Twenty-Five Cents	1863	Alabama
Fifty Cents	1863	Alabama
One Dollar	1863	Alabama
Twenty-Five Cents	1864	North Carolina
One Dollar	1863	North Carolina
Three Dollars	1863	North Carolina
Twenty Dollars	1862	Georgia
Five Dollars	1869	Virginia
Twenty Dollars	1861	Confederate States (Richmond)
Ten Dollars	1862	Confederate States (Richmond)
Two Dollars	1862	Confederate States (Richmond)
One Hundred Dollars		Confederate States (Two cents interest per day)
Fifty Cents	1864	Confederate States (Richmond)
Two Dollars	1864	Confederate States (Richmond)
Five Dollars	1864	Confederate States (Richmond)
Twenty Dollars	1864	Confederate States
Two Dollars	186-	Warren, Pennsylvania
One Dollar	186-	Missouri Defence Bond
Three Dollars	186-	Missouri Defence Bond
Four Dollars	186-	Missouri Defence Bond
Four Dollars, Fifty Cents		Missouri Defence Bond
Twenty Dollars	186-	Missouri Defence Bond
Fifty Dollars	186-	Missouri Defence Bond

Yours very truly,

A. H. Haill,
Assistant Cashier.

FEDERAL RESERVE BANK
OF ST. LOUIS

July 26, 1940.

Mr. Eric Newman,
6450 Cecil Avenue,
St. Louis, Missouri.

Dear Mr. Newman:

The Federal Reserve Bank of St. Louis acknowledges receipt of the following specimens of currency:

Five Dollars - Issued by the Bank of Georgetown, South Carolina

Fifty Shillings - Dated 1773 (Pennsylvania)

Sixty-Five Dollars - Dated 1779.
(U. S. of North America)

Half Dollar - 1776 (Hall & Sellers, Philadelphia)

Twelve Shillings - 1776 New Jersey

Eighty Dollars - 1779 (Spanish Milled Dollars)

Four Dollars - 1776 (Spanish Milled Dollars)

Yours very truly,

A. H. Haill,
Assistant Cashier.